

U District Green Street Summer Activation

Proposal made by: Angelina Schanen

Communal Lock Booth Proposal

- Accessible 24/7 and long lasting art installation
- On the day of installation, locks will be available at a low price, a pay-what-you-can basis, or even for free.
- A tasteful photo opportunity will be available on the first day, where members of the community can choose to have their photos taken with their locks sitting in the booth.
- These photos can be compiled into a slideshow that will be featured as part of the art installation. An idea would be to have it going in between outdoor movie showings, or even its own art show
- Compels others to add their own locks and personalized messages
- Discounts to local businesses for contributing to the booth on

Communal Lock Booth Proposal

- A visually appealing 3 sided sturdy fence or structure.
- Similar to phone booth dimensions with a seat inside
- A designated area for people to fasten locks as a symbol of love, friendship, and community.
- An attractive photo op that continuously changes as time passes
- An engaging art installation that gives people a sense of involvement in creating a pedestrian friendly and vibrant community experience
- Located in a highly visible and accessible area within the U District Green Street
